NOTE FOR THE FILE

Appropriate inquiry was made in response to the request of Mr. Helms at this morning's 9:00 meeting concerning the authorship of the Fulbright article "We Must Not Fight Fire With Fire" which appeared in the New York Times Magazine of Sunday, April 23. My own estimate from previous information is that the article was written by Seth Tillman, who is a Consultant to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

27 April 1967

Confirmation was received this morning that the Fulbright article was written by Seth Tillman. The involuted sentences and the references to Kant were noted as peculiarities of Tillman's style that are not known in any other person associated with Senator Fulbright.
